ABOUT A-CERTS

The Association of Company Emergency Response Teams (Singapore) (A-CERTS) is a non-profit organisation which is established in the year of 2011, with the support from Singapore Civil Defence Force (SCDF).

Since then, A-CERTS has embarked on a journey to establish a credible platform for emergency responders and companies to join as individual/corporate members to share their experience and network with each other.

We also aim to create, professional development opportunities within our fraternity. With the aim to align with the industry standards of excellence, A-CERTS continues to work side-by-side with government agencies in developing and enhancing training courses and setting quality benchmarks in the field of Emergency Response & Crisis Management.

ABOUT CERT SEMINAR
